Grant Writing Basics

We have studied under grant writing experts who have written successful grants. Using these steps, these experts have been able to fund over ninety percent of their projects and we have their winning formula. Our grant writing workshops will introduce participants to the 12 steps that yield results. I will share their secrets with you. The workshops can be taken individually or collectively, by those who have no grant writing skills and those with some grant writing experience but who wish to hone in on just a few specific areas. Our recommendation is for participants regardless of grant writing experience, to take all 12 steps.
